Our President

RALPH W. LLOYD, B.A., B.D., D.D., LL.D.

After twenty years as president, Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd may still look forward to long-continuing further achievement as he guides the College in all her activities and programs. It was fitting that the Student Body should pay tribute to their leader in celebration of his twentieth anniversary as President with a reception at the Fine Arts Center—one of the crowning achievements of his full and profitable career.

A familiar and popular figure on campus, Dr. Lloyd represents the College in educational associations, religious work, and is active in national and international affairs. But to the students at Maryville College, he is even more than that; he's a friend, a symbol of high achievement—whether he's granting an annual holiday, building a Fine Arts Center, or completing the funds for the Chapel.

LOUISE MARGARET LLOYD

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

Honors are reserved for those who merit them. And to those who best represent their college in all-around achievement the CHILHOWEAN awards its honors. They are presented now to the girl who has given the College the best she has—so graciously, uncomplainingly, and skillfully. With a personality perfectly rounded by participation in scholastic achievement, sincere religious endeavors, and student activities, she is the culmination of all we would wish to find in an outstanding woman and valued friend. It is with pleasure and appreciation that the CHILHOWEAN introduces its Girl of the Year—Louise Lloyd.

BOY OF THE YEAR

GEORGE PHILIP BARBER

ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA

The success of a production, the strength of a school, lies in those people who give untiringly of themselves in everything they undertake. Often, we onlookers never realize the long hours of planning and plain hard work that go unrecognized. Because he has contributed unselfishly so much to our college . . . because in whatever he undertakes—whether work on stage crews, in parish, in the Glee Club, Playhouse, or Y—he is a willing and conscientious worker . . . and because of his friendly personality and helping hand . . . the CHIL-HOWEAN is proud to present—George Barber, our Boy of the Year.

Alice and the White Rabbit go through the looking-glass

"Alice in Wonderland" was the theme chosen for the 1950 presentation of the annual May Day Pageant. The audience followed the adventures of Alice as she stepped through the looking-glass into the story-book Wonderland, set in the college amphitheater. Henry Callaway and Frances Postlewaite, reigning as King and Queen of May Day, with their Court, were presented and ruled over the performance.

ORGANIZATIONS

Council at work

Working through our student body constitution, the Student Council is Maryville College's representative governing body. The organization of the Council offers each student several different channels through which his opinions may reach the Council for discussion and action in the weekly meetings. A closer feeling of cooperation between the faculty and student body is one of the aims of the Student Council.

The many all-campus elections are conducted by the Student Council and governed by rules the Council sets up. Town Night also comes under the supervision of the Council; and working through the Social Board, Student Council plays a major part in providing campus activities and entertainment.

Cast of a Sunday Program

It's All in a Day's Work at the Mission

Throughout the year, the Maryville College YWCA has played an important part in campus life. It has set as its goal the full development of each girl, emphasizing the mental, physical, spiritual, and social areas of an integrated personality.

One of the most essential projects of the YWCA is its efforts to acquaint freshman girls with Maryville and college life, using adult sponsors, Big-Little Sister programs, and numerous Nu Gamma activities. In order to help the girls of the college discover, utilize, and develop their native abilities and, at the same time, satisfy a desire to fill some need, the YW sponsors work in missions, community service, Barnwarming, and weekly Sunday programs. Dormitory prayer groups and various other devotional activities are planned to add spiritual depth and wisdom to the college experience.

The regular programs were designed to present all phases of life that were pertinent and of vital interest to young women in a Christian college. This was done through skits, lectures, and worship services.

There is no doubt that the YWCA has done much to help the young women of Maryville find their place in an active Christian service.

A Monday Night Radio Program

The "Y" Store, a Favorite Campus Spot

"Making Your Life Count" was the theme around which the work of the YMCA centered this year. An attempt was made to show the men of the college that they could make their lives count for God through service in local mission projects, boys' clubs, and Boy Scout troops. Aids to social and spiritual development were found in the Big-Little Brother program, the annual Y-hike, and intramural athletics. Through participation in the weekly Sunday meetings, certain leadership qualities were trained, and a talent, a skill, or just a spirit of willingness "counted for God."

The programs included not only campus material; but, through mutual cooperation with the YWCA, such programs as the Knoxville College Quartet, a Bible baseball game, and a meeting with the University of Tennessee YMCA were presented.

The Y's have also cooperated to bring to our campus the "Y" Store and the "M" Book, as well as the weekly Monday night radio program, "Pathways."

Truly the YMCA, in cooperation with the YWCA, has done much this year to help Maryville students make their lives count for the college, the community, and the church.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

Maryville's Student Volunteers is a local branch of a national movement concerned primarily with the missionary outreach of the church. The weekly Sunday night programs which are presented by the group offer inspiration and information to all students who are interested in the many phases of missionary work.

This year the organization had as its theme, "Go, Give, and Pray." Throughout the year emphasis was placed on the fact that prayers and gifts, as well as volunteers for life service, are essential for accomplishing the challenge of missionary work at home or abroad.

Bainonian Society started off an active year with a Rush Week program built around the theme of "A Week on the High Seas." As pirates, they introduced new girls to an exciting week that included a treasure hunt, a pre-cruise get together, and climaxed with the presentation of an original musical comedy, "The Lady and the Pirate."

The highlights of this past year's activities include the presentation of the six Bainonian girls chosen to grace the Athenian-Bainonian Calendar, the annual faculty-Bainonian basketball game, the Skit Night program with the award going to our brother society, Athenian, and the spring formal dance which this year was sponsored by Bainonian and Athenian.

Bainonian's division into smaller chapters has helped to establish a closer relationship between its members, and each girl by her participation in the many activities of the society feels truly a part of the "friendly" society.

Theta went all out this year with its enthusiasm and pep to make Rush Week a memorable occasion for freshman girls, and upperclassmen as well. Disclosing the theme of "Rainbow Land," the traditional Splash Party was held in the college pool. The Thetas participating demonstrated various strokes and presented a water ballet. At the close of the program a large pot of gold was drawn up from the bottom of the pool, after which all joined in the swim. Climaxing the week was the Theta formal in which Thetas and Alpha Sigs combined their talents to give us a glimpse into Rainbow Land.

Some of the outstanding events in the past year which will be long remembered were the Saturday night card party, the Theta-Alpha Sig basketball game, and the reinstatement of the Theta Sweetheart, selected by our brother society, Alpha Sigma.

ART ACTIVITIES

With fine new studios in the recently completed Fine Arts Center in which to work, the Art Department has been able to spread out and get ready for some real achievement. Whether working in the fields of crafts, sculpturing, or painting, interested students find their particular media for artistic expression.

Both exhibitors and spectators have been pleased with the exhibits in the big new Art Gallery, where displays of students, Japanese artists, Mr. Dashiell, Elizabeth Gowdy Baker, and other contributors have been admired. With new facilities, the art activities of the College can look forward to much further expansion and achievement in their various work.

MARYVILLE PLAYERS

Whether behind the footlights or in the audience everyone has enjoyed the presentations of the Maryville Players in the 1950 and 1951 series, which included such theatrical classics as Wilder's "Our Town," Milne's "Mr. Pim Passes By," and Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing." All of the productions were under the capable direction of the Maryville Players' new director, Miss Kathleen Cravin.

Activities in Maryville's Experimental Theater group were at a new height, with members spending much time delving into work in the fields of modern staging, including theater in the round. Among the plays produced with a great deal of work and fun were "The Man Who Died at Twelve O'Clock," "Aria da Capo," "The Net Which They Hid"—an original play by Del Earisman, and the famous morality play, "Everyman." Maryville Players and Experimental Theater welcome all students with energy, talent and enthusiasm to their ranks.

Dr. Luther E. Stein, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Oak Park, Illinois, led Maryville's seventy-fifth series of February meetings. For the twenty-ninth year, Dr. Sidney E. Stringham, of St. Louis, Missouri, assisted in the directing of hymns and special music.

Dr. Stein used as his major thesis the fact that we were "born to receive" from our universe and our God, and that until we accepted His gift of Love, our personalities—our very lives—would remain unsatisfied and wanting. Many will forever value the encouragement and insight gained through dormitory bull sessions, informal discussions, and personal interviews with Dr. Stein. The February Meetings have indeed served to revitalize spiritual life on the Hill.

COACH LOMBE S. HONAKER

Sixty prospective young footballers turned out on the first day of school, facing the insurmountable fact that their's was going to be a tough season ahead—and after the smoke of a season's play had settled, it was, indeed, the blackest season in Highlander football history.

The usual "expected breather" with Hiwassee turned out to be a "breath-taker" as the Tigers ran and tossed MC's line to death. The final score was 34-20.

The next opponents for a somewhat bewildered group of Scots were the Gamecocks of Jacksonville State. MC played one of its finest halves in holding the Alabama team scoreless for half the game. It was the first of many valiant stands in the first half of our games; but the Gamecocks were fired up in the second half. This, plus superior manpower, finally overwhelmed Maryville 21-7.

Centre's Praying Colonels then came to town and mixed in some double-wing with the Notre Dame box to win a 14-7 thriller. After the Colonels scored the first of two TD's, Charlie Allen brought cheers from the crowd as he raced back 85 yards with the kickoff to tie up the ball game. But it was not enough and the Orange and Garnet could not muster a last-half attack though they held Centre to only one first down.

Some fifty die-hards made the trip to see the Scots put up another gallant first-half stand against ETS at Johnson City. Behind a hard-charging line led by Captain Walker, MC stunned ETS homecoming fans. Taking advantage of a couple of Scot mistakes and weak passing defense, ETS came from behind to win 34-14. MC returned home for our Homecoming game with Emory & Henry only to disappoint our crowd by a defeat of 56-0.

Austin Peay's Governors, in the final home game of the season, out-scored MC in every possible way to win 35-0.

Since the Split-T had produced no results, Coach Honaker re-instituted the Single Wing before a C-N homecoming crowd. Maryville's charging line made it difficult for the Eagles during the first half, but C-N filched a couple of MC passes to clinch the game in the fourth quarter, 28-6.

MC again took to the road against Tusculum whose Pioneers first got their hands on the ball and marched over for seven points. Charley Allen led back the resurging Scots on seven straight plays to score, but the extra point was missed, and another game went into the lost column.

Despite the brilliant all-round play of Allen and the line, Georgetown's Tigers took advantage of MC mistakes to win the final game of the season 34-14. The season played on the new football field was generally one of "being so close and yet so far."

With the loss of eight lettermen from last year's squad, prospects were not bright for Coach Honaker's cage-men, although they opened the season by defeating National Business College of Knoxville, 93-49. The next game was won from King by a 68-56 count. Then came a deluge of losses as MC's shooting average fell off and LMU and Georgetown defeated us at home. Losses—twice to Chattanooga, twice to ETS, to Hiwassee, Milligan, King, and Tusculum—on the road made the situation look dismal. However, the Scots came back with victories over Tennessee Wesleyan and Hiwassee, with four more games to be played as this book went to press. Stand-outs for the Scots during the season were Captain Babe Keny, Charlie Allen, John Shields, and Stan Downs, with the last three forming a nucleus for next season's team.

Get that rebound, Scotties!

W R E S T L I N G

As the 1950-51 wrestling season opened, Coach John Davis was faced with the loss of five lettermen from his 49-50 team which had a seven-one record and was second in the SEAAU tourney.

The season opened up successfully at Chattanooga with the Highlanders winning, 18-15. Another triumph over Knoxville, 19-11, set the stage for the Scots' first loss to powerful SEAAU champs, Auburn, 30-0. Chattanooga then lost her return match with MC, 19-11. Still forthcoming were matches with Georgia Tech, Emory, Atlanta, Knoxville Y and the SEAAU Tourney as this publication went to press.

BASEBALL, 1950

Baseball was once again in the lime-light last spring as the Highlanders of Coach Lombe Honaker won thirteen games, lost only four, and tied one. MC started the season off right by winning from both Hiwassee, 17-1, and Miami of Ohio, 14-3, before losing to the Miami Redskins by a 16-3 count. After this the Scots had little trouble with the opposition, toppling over Hiwassee twice, 21-12 and 25-2. The Scots then stepped out of the ranks of college ball and visited the Middlesboro team of the Mountain States League in a night game which the Mountaineers won, 3-1. MC next split with Northern Illinois before tying the Newport Cannons, 11-11. A string of victories followed as the Scots rolled over the Cannons, 5-3, LMU, 5-0, and Milligan, 11-9. The Buffs gained revenge in a second game, 9-8, for our last loss. After that ETS went down, 5-4 and 8-1, LMU, 4-0, and C-N in two games, 12-4 and 12-0, to end a successful season for the Scots.

CHILLIES

Not to be outdone by the athletes of the stronger sex, Maryville lassies with an athletic bent participate in traditional friendly rivalry by giving their allegiance and energies to one of the two divisions of Women's Varsity—the Chillies or the Howies.

Varsity boasts a calendar of sports in which everyone may participate. Enthusiastic athletes go all out for a succession of sports, including aerial darts, tennis, swimming, basketball, soccer, stunts, softball, badminton, and track and field sports. While there is much enthusiasm and spirit during practices within each group, these reach a peak in the duels between Chillies and Howies in many of the sports.

Varsity is set up on a point system whereby girls accumulating sufficient points earned in athletic participation may be awarded a school letter and possible entrance into the "M" Club. With such rewards and with the fun and enthusiasm girls enjoy in Varsity, it is no surprise to the school that the organization is growing every year.

H O W I E S

THE WOMEN'S 'M' CLUB

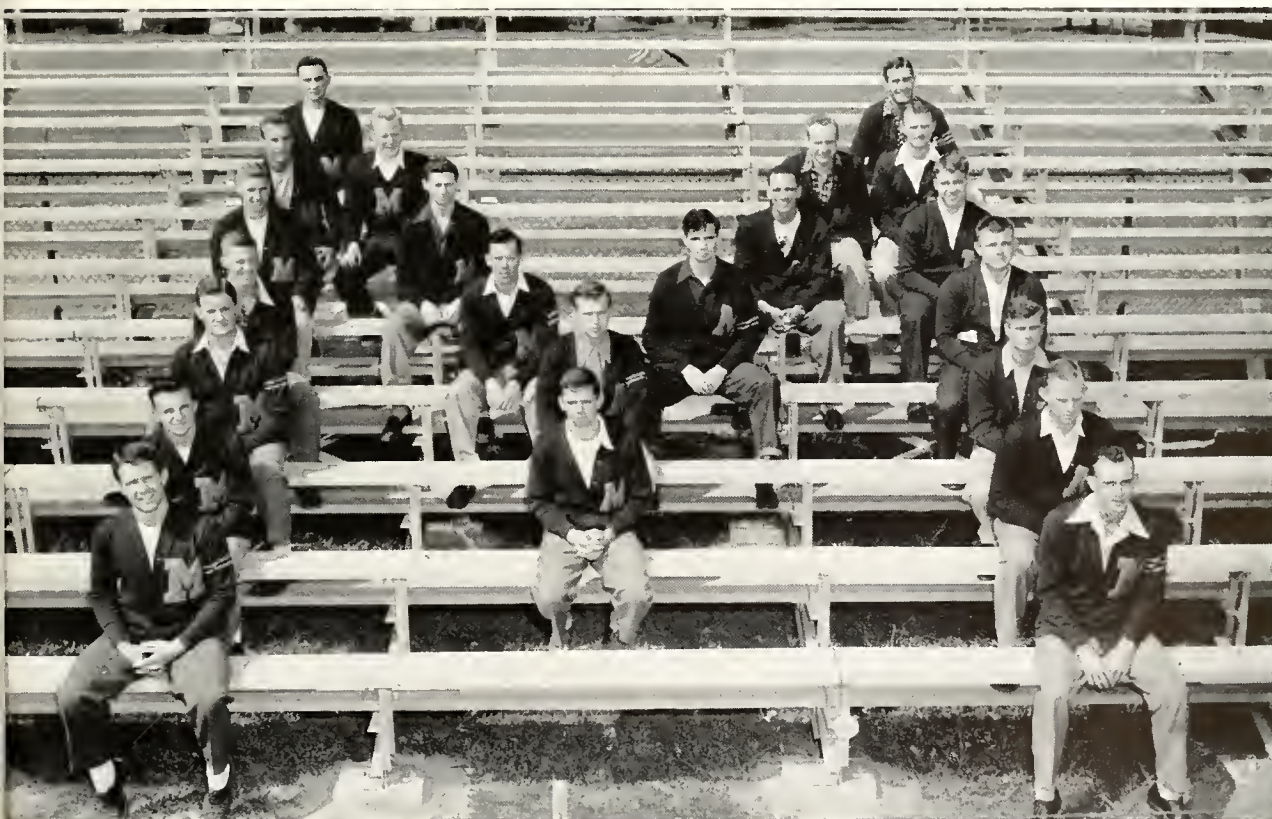

Membership in the "M" Club, the girls' athletic club of Maryville College, is achieved by accumulating four hundred or more points through participation in the athletic sports of Women's Varsity. The purpose of "M" Club is to further the interest in women's athletics and to promote good sportsmanship on Maryville Campus. An overnight hike in the nearby Smokies each semester highlights the club's activities for the year.

Farm animals and "Shoe Shine Boys" remind us immediately of the Men's "M" Club. Now in its second year, the Men's "M" Club is active on campus to organize the lettermen of the various athletic squads. The boys who are initiated each year show that they have the sportsmanship which the members stress on the field and on campus.

Head Cheerleader Tom Kees, followed by seven other spirited Cheerleaders, helped keep pep high when the going was rough during football and basketball season. Always on the job, the Cheerleaders and the Pep Committee, with Jim Townshend as chairman, were on hand for entertainment and a loud "Fight Scots Fight" at every pep rally and game.

Under the excellent direction of Coach Kenneth Johnson the Intramural Teams played a season of spirited rivalry. Also deserving of a word of praise are the Intramural Managers who carried out the difficult task of scheduling games and providing referees.

1950 TRACK

Maryville opened up the cinder season with the Milligan Relays at Johnson City and placed third in the meet. ETS was next to defeat us 73 1-3 points to our 53 2-3 points. Best and last meet of the season was a 76-55 victory over the University of Chattanooga.

MC's tennis team carried over a ten-match winning streak when they opened up against Carson-Newman and carried it on through for matches against Tennessee Wesleyan, IMU, and Milligan. ETS triumphed over the Scots, but the season finished successfully

CROSS COUNTRY

The MC Cross Country team failed to extend the previous year's five-meet winning streak as it lost the first two races of the season to the UT Vols squad. The Scots came back to win home-and-away performances with Sewanee and William Jennings Bryan to finish up the season with a respectable 4-2 record.
